

Dear Campers...

There are summers and then there are summers. And oh my what a summer it was. There is no proper way to describe the feelings of emotion and Hakaras Hatov that we are all feeling after the summer of 5780/2020. We came in to a summer that no one could have possibly planned, so unsure of what lay ahead. There were restrictions, limitations, and a sense of uneasiness at the beginning of the summer. But as the summer progressed we realized that this summer was also a tremendous opportunity for us. And boy did we seize it. We grew in so many ways on and off the court (not just inches or flag grabbing). There were moments of joy (RED!!), moments of frustration (rain...) and moments of disappointment (most league teams :-). But throughout it all the entire head staff kept remarking how impressed we were by the chevra we had this year. From the 6th Graders, who have us all excited for what's in store next year, to the ninth graders who were leaders in their own right, to the dedicated staff, it is all of you that makes Eeshay such a special place. So as leave the tent for the last time, and walk into your house tonight, remember this. When life gave us lemons, all of us together made the worlds greatest smoothie.

Have a great shabbos and a year of shteiging,

Rabbi Schonfeld
Rabbi Kramer
Rabbi Kessel

Surprise! The mystery writer was me, Baruch Korn the whole time! How could you guys not figure it out? All those clues? Helloooooo, anyone home? Sheesh. And you guys were all sooooo scared. Y'all thought it was some kind of evil serial killer or something, but it was just me. (Then again, what happened to Yaakov Kahn?) So ends summer 2017. Or was it 2018? Oh, it's 2020? Ohmygoodness! Sorry if I'm a little confused; Red Team's play really warped my mind. I am trying desperately to purge it from my mind. I hope you all had a fantastic and safe summer. Mine wasn't bad, but I really missed being in camp. Today, I saw a picture of a few campers playing baseball. The camera was on the third base side facing the plate, so you could see the batter, the catcher, and the umpire. I couldn't peel my eyes away; I should've been the ump in the picture. I had to Zoom in to see the Color War plays; I should've been writing and acting in one of them! I still have great ideas for CW plays, but I don't think I'll be able to make them happen. I miss the DavisHouse and my other Secret Underground Bunker, I miss my shul, and I miss seeing and spending time with all of you guys. I've never had so much fun in camp than as a Staff Member at Eeshay, and I have all of you guys to thank for it. But such is the way of life; we all have to leave camp eventually. I am very grateful to R Schonfeld for dragging me out of retirement to write these articles. I can still be in camp, even when I'm not. So there I was, sitting in my secret underground bunker minding my own business, when all of the sudden, the hatch gets blown open and group of misfits led by some crazy Israeli burst in, and they all start beating me up until everything went black. Sometime later, I regained consciousness in a dark creepy basement not my own. My head was pounding mightily, and a heavy chain bound me to the floor. The door slowly opened, and a man wrapped in shadows walked in. He laughed cruelly at my demise, and said that he brought me here to write articles for him every week, all year long. It was at this moment, I was finally able to push aside my headache and took a good look at my oppressor. It was R Schonfeld. I was shocked. How could such a nice man commit such a heinous crime? And also, why would he want articles all year long? Doesn't he just hibernate till next summer? Makes no sense. But here I sit. And here I remain. HEEEEEEELP!!! The camp will be voting on the team themes for next year's CW. Do you want bathing suits vs speedos, or do you want Milchigs vs Fleishigs? Please email your vote to the camp email address, which is now working properly once again. Deadline is 9/1/2020; late votes will not be counted. As the COVID numbers go down and hopefully we never see the virus ever again, if everyone could please continue to wear masks, that would be much appreciated. Especially if you're ugly. A list of people who should continue social distancing will be sent out shortly. Lastly, please take a few moments to go over and thank all the head staff for making camp happen this summer. Every summer, they work countless hours to bring you an amazing summer, and this year was especially trying. Millions of kids all over the country could not go to camp this summer; be thankful that you had this privilege, and be thankful it was Eeshay. It is the best camp in the world. HAVE A GREAT YEAR!!!

Hakol Kol Yaakov...

To my Little Bachurs,
I still have so many questions. For example: What exactly does Rabbi Schonfeld do (Because apparently he's not here for his math skills)? And who's this Baruch Korn guy? And where was Eeshay's Talent (Uh...Yeah)? And why does Rabbi Kessel dislike children so much? And why are Passaic kids so lazy (It wouldn't kill you to walk somewhere)? And why is the average age on our basketball team 40 (Maybe it's so we have excuse for losing by 40)? And why is the newsletter called Sparks (It sure isn't because of the "fire" content)?
Despite all these things that I still don't know, I do know one thing. I had a great summer in Eeshay. The staff is awesome, the campers are really great, and the head staff is okay. Also I really discovered my love for being an umpire during the last few days of camp. There's nothing like calling a kid out on strikes while he stares at strike three with the bat on his shoulder. The only thing better is watching him walk sheepishly back to where he was sitting. But back to serious, my summer was greatly enhanced by my experiences in Eeshay. I really appreciate everyone who befriended me during my first year in camp, making me feel welcome. I hope everyone has a successful year in school, yeshiva, seminary etc. We'll see you soon!
Sincerely,
Your Big Bachur,
Yaakov Horwitz

COLOR WAR 2020!!

Wow. The best summer of our lives has officially come to a close. Seems like it was just yesterday I walked into camp on the first day knowing exactly one person's name. Well, not any more! it's been such an awesome experience getting to know all the boys (THE BOIS!!!), balling together and reffing and reffing and reffing - but mostly reffing. Thank you to each and every one of you for making me feel so welcome and at home from day one. Now for the blue team.

Wow. What can I say boys? We gave it our all, fought like meshugaman in Afghanistan, battled like Morrrison on the slip and slide. But all that just wasn't enough to get it done. We all know it's about the journey and not the destination though - and what a journey it was! Captains Groman and Sperling dedicated hours of their free time to writing, planning, shopping, organizing and taking absolutely necessary slurpee breaks. Without them we would have never stood chance. Thank you! To the Barnett bros who worked tirelessly to help make our beautiful Alma mater, thank you! Lieutenant Gewirtz, that's right, lieutenant! You may have not been given a title but you definitely deserved it. You were a major part of every single thing we did, and those back to back chocolate chip cookies kept us going through some dark times. I would be remiss if I didn't mention the star of the play, the heart and soul of our team, the man behind it all. Thanks Zeke. Thank you to Sruli Schonfeld for all the help with the play and the cheer. Eitan Zoldan, you where a tremendous help throughout, especially with the play. Thank you Avi Meth for staying up all night working with the boys. Thank you Chaim Glasser, without you the play doesn't happen. Binyamin Mathias, thank you for hitting the most clutch free throw of your life. Mordy Buchen, thank you for constantly running around and supporting the boys (THE BOIS!!!), I'm eternally grateful for your loving high fives. DOVIE BERKES, Bro. Wow. In my life I have never seen somebody walk into such an impressively dysfunctional situation and emerge with such an awesome and supremely organized play. You're the best boss I've ever had. THANK YOU. To all the campers of blue team, you guys were awesome! It was an honor to have fought beside you! It was a blast from start to finish. To R Kramer, R Kessel and R Schonfeld, the atmosphere and culture that you've created in Eeshay is actually unbelievable. Thank you for making me feel like I've been an Eeshayer my whole life. Thank you Shimmy for the rides, Yaakov for the hugs and Muehlgay for the hugs. We all know you guys are the gears that keep camp rolling. So let me hear all y'all one last time:

Who we doing it for???

General Yitzki "itzik Batman" Tyberg

What's up everyone! It's general Jacobs coming to you with one day left of another absolutely spectacular summer, a summer that was truly like no other in more ways than one. As both teams expressed so beautifully in the alma maters we didn't think we'd even be there singing at the climax of color war and we have to give tremendous hakoras hatov to Rabbi Schonfeld and the entire head staff for their tremendous work and ingenuity in creating an environment filled the incredible ruach of Eeshay day in and day out even in the current matziv. (The gym being open this half was the biggest improvement for me.) And now on to Color War 2020! What an awesome performance by the entire red team, each Yachid contributing to the win (get it.) But seriously awesome job by the entire red staff working late hours 3 straight nights and still having the energy to show and bring the hype in sports, play, aqua meet (sort of,) and definitely the apache race and bring us to victory. Got to start with a massive shout-out and thank you to Asher (Ack)erman for along with Eli Soled engineering the dominant performance in camper sports and the apache race and on top of that playing great in the staff games acting in the play and letting us use his house as our base of operations (until we got rained out.) Thank you to our great play team led by Daniel and Ari and all the campers who acted so well for putting on a hilariously great production. As always thank you to Moshe Muehlgay for doing a great job running camp his Oscar worthy performance in the play (even though the wig fell off) and for doing all the little things from getting props to buying Laffy Taffies last second for the play. And by far the best of all we managed to go through a whole color war without giving each other stitches! Thank you to Yehuda Benschar, Hillel Muehlgay, Shimmy Hahn, and Ephriam Younger for all your work organizing the games, great performances in sports and the home run derby, and for bringing the energy throughout color war. And of course our incredible song team Yaakov Sperling and Yechiel Miller you guys really went above and beyond to help produce our amazing cheer and alma mater. I had a ton of fun thinking up lyrics with you guys till the late hours of the morning and Yaakov going above and beyond by also singlehandedly writing the grammen and dvar halacha. Thank you so much guys! And the best for last; the amazing campers of the red team, you guys were amazing, dominating in sports both days and absolutely killing it in the apache race. You were truly the driving force behind this win. I'd also like to give a big shoutout to general (Rabbi) Tyberg and the blue team for your valiant effort I really enjoyed battling it out with you guys. And last but certainly not least to the amazing head staff of Camp Eeshay for all the work you have done and continue to do to ensure that Eeshay remains the best camp there is. So thank you to Rabbi Schonfeld, Rabbi Kramer, Rabbi Kessel, Shimmy, Heshy for yet another incredible summer.

Signing off for now,
General Akiva Jacobs

Team Blue- Alma Mater T.T.T.O.: Aleinu- WTBY
LOW 1:

It's been such a long time, since I've been with my friends,
When will I see them again...
Yeshivas been on zoom,
I'm confined to my room
Will this ever end...?

LOW 2: And then I get the news, that I've been longing to hear, summers drawing near
EESHAYS opening
Were finally off-screen
That Spark begins to gleam

CHORUS: Even when darkness comes,
crashing through
Whenever you need a friend, to carry you
Eeshays there for me, by your side, holding your hand
Through a summer that nobody could have planned

LOW 3: Bubbles and wristbands, rules to follow
But it's still the same camp I know
Swimming chess E league, W.B.C
Nuff' Said this is the place to beee

LOW 4: Shimmy Mensch always alive with his boundless energy, Horowitz dropping the beat
The thrill of every game, the rush of every play, it's the league of RJK

CHORUS: Even when darkness comes,
crashing through
Whenever you need a friend, to carry you
Eeshays there for me, by your side, holding your hand
Through a summer that nobody could have planned

LOW 5: A shining smile, a genuine warmth,
Rabbi Kramers glowing love
Cares for all of us
Tough loss or a scrape
You never hesitate
You always can relate..

LOW 6: The driving force of our camp
Rabbi Schonfeld at the helm
Facilitating each and every day
Carrying the team
Eight years it's been supreme
Making the TLC our dream

CHORUS: Even when darkness comes,
crashing through
Whenever you need a friend, to carry you
Eeshays there for me, by your side, holding your hand
Through a summer that nobody could have planned

Low 7: Standing in the setting sun, in the parking lot
A long color war we've just fought
All The friends that I'll keep, the growth that I've achieved
I CANT BELIEVE ITS TIME TO LEAVE

CHORUS: Even when darkness comes,
crashing through
Whenever you need a friend, to carry you
Eeshays there for me, by your side, holding your hand
Through a summer that nobody could have planned

CHORUS: Even when darkness comes,
crashing through
Whenever you need a friend, to carry you
Eeshays there for me, by your side, holding your hand
Through a summer that nobody could have planned

Team Red-Yachid-Alma Mater T.T.T.O. "Lo Sira" by Noam Gelb
Low 1: Lying down, bored and drained
All my progress through the year slipping away
Haven't seen, a friend in weeks
Will I have to spend summer in the streets?

Low 2: I hear a knock, my dad's voice
"Son, I have news, there is another choice Eeshay is, open this year"
I suddenly feel my fears disappear

High 1: I had thought, "the summer's dead and gone"
Didn't think, we'd ever sing this song
But we're back again, and we're stronger now than ever
I know you'll never let me go

High 2: All my friends, the moments we have shared
Will give, me strength throughout the year
Side by side, we stand as one together
I'm not afraid to go back home

Low 3: Learning groups may be on zoom
But the energy is still felt in my room
Brought to me by FSA
The light of Torah brightens up my day

Low 4: We take the field, give it our all Everybody getting a chance to stand tall
Energized, by his support
R' Kessel's there, both on and off the court

High 1: I had thought, "the summer's dead and gone"
Didn't think, we'd ever sing this song
But we're back again, and we're stronger now than ever
I know you'll never let me go

High 2: All my friends, the moments we have shared
Will give, me strength throughout the year
Side by side, we stand as one together
I'm not afraid to go back home

Low 5: He's Camp Eeshay's heart and soul
When I'm broken his warm smile makes me whole
When I'm down, I know he's there
R' Kramer it's so clear you truly care

Low 6: The force behind all that we do
There are no words to properly thank you
How can one match R' Schonfeld's drive
You have gifted us the summer of our lives

High 1: I had thought, "the summer's dead and gone"
Didn't think, we'd ever sing this song
But we're back again, and we're stronger now than ever
I know you'll never let me go

High 2: All my friends, the moments we have shared
Will give, me strength throughout the year
Side by side, we stand as one together
I'm not afraid to go back home

Low 7: BMX, 40 yard strides,
EGT, Body slams on the slide
Chicago Boys, Clifton repeats
All synchronized to Eeshay's unique beat

Low 8: At long last, my world has light
There is nothing I can't do with Eeshay's might Against all odds, you overcame
Nothing can put out your eternal flame!

High 1 (Solo): I had thought, "the summer's dead and gone"
Didn't think, we'd ever sing this song
But we're back again, and we're stronger now than ever
I know you'll never let me go

High 2: All my friends, the moments we have shared
Will give, me strength throughout the year
Side by side, we stand as one together
I'm not afraid to go back home (Back to High 1, all together)

Ending Duet: With your spark, I'm more prepared than ever
Thank you for all that you have done
