

Dear Campers...

The first half of camp is over. How is that even possible? It feels like we just started! (Magic Marc, Athenia feels like yesterday!) It was a half filled with magical moments. A trip to American Dream, Neighborhood Day for the ages (Passaic won?? Passaic won!!), and a sense of Achdus and chevra-shoft (which means togetherness in yeshivishe raide) that permeates every single moment of every day. It seems almost appropriate that we end the half a few days before Tisha B'Av. Because as we all know the reason for the destruction of the Beis Hamikdash was Sinas Chinum. That doesn't only mean baseless hatred and out right being mean and nasty. It means not looking out and caring about someone who isn't the same as you or as talented as you. We can only hope and daven that the amount of Ahavas Yisroel that we have exhibited here in camp will help rebuild the Third Bes Hamikdash. To those leaving after the first half (including some nameless staff members) we wish you a wonderful second half of the summer. And to those returning next week, get ready for a second half that will blow your mind. Trips, special activities, and a half that will hopefully create lifelong memories. Have a wonderful Shabbos, and a meaningful fast.

*Have a great Shabbos,
Rabbi Schonfeld
Rabbi Kramer
Rabbi Kessel
Shimmy and Ezra*

From The Desk Of Ez the Prez

The dust settles, everyone walks in slow motion, one cries over defeat, the other over triumph. It's been decided. The dominant city is... Acquackanonk! Look it up. Or ask Septimus. Oooh, that would have been good for balderdash. #flo-ripondio #throwback To those who laugh before looking it up, I love your enthusiasm, and so does Muehlgay. #EeshayHype. We had quite the day of the battling cities. But why is it not called "city day"? Ah, one of the great Eeshay mysteries, like who stole Feit's no hitter ball, where does Shimmy's learning group take place, and how Sandler and Nissim Black haven't made a record together yet #wasthatagramen? A highlight of Neighborhood Day definitely was Binny Sperling... 's tiros. #meh. Neighborhood day did not come without its fair share of controversy, as any true battle would. There is a team set out to examine a certain family's backyard. LazarGate will be taken very seriously by the investigation team. Spoiler, the team is Rabbi Schonfeld. Spoiler, he's not going to put Lazar on passaic. #CliftonPull Let's not forget the other battles of the week.

The first ever Ez Games started, and the beautiful sounds of "nobody wants your sheep!" rang in the halls of Eeshay. Rabbi Kramer's sushi skills, the fathers dominating the staff #polosandkhakis (let's try basketball next time) and Groman's huge shot...s in every neighborhood day sport, Captain Needle leading all of you Passaicans to a year long bragging rights trip, this was quite the end to another amazing half of Cam- sniffle sniffle, sorry I'm choking up... sniffle just end the article already. Always #ONFI...sniff Ez
