

Dear Campers...

Wow! What an incredible first week! Balderdash, giant connect 4, ___ the counselor, Eeshay vs Shoresh, and of course the Jackals. But it's not just the schedule and activities that make it incredible, it is the way by which you the Eeshay Campers approach the games and the competition. Yes of course we are here to have a blast, and we do, But it's always with keeping our fellow campers in mind whether on our team or the other. And in truth when we act like the beautiful Bnei Torah that we are, we end up having the most enjoyable time. In this weeks Parsha we have the Mitzvah of loving Hashem. The Sifri writes that when we love Hashem we will want others to be close to him as well - and causing others to love Hashem is part of the Mitzvah itself. When we represent the Torah properly and act with great consideration and kindness to others that will cause others to love the ways of the Torah. Keep up the great work guys looking forward to another incredible week ahead... did anybody mention Joey Newcomb :-)

Have a great Shabbos,

From The Desk Of Ez the Prez

It doesn't rain in Eeshay. A saying that rings through the halls of Eeshay. It permeates the walls of Eeshay, even the wall of fame. Who's that in the picture? Was he sports staff here or something? #we'llseeyouMonday
 It doesn't rain in Eeshay. A saying as old as my Eeshay career #ROY, an explanation of Athenia, and an excuse for the fathers to forfeit, we use this line many a time and take this saying for granted. I would like to challenge this notion that it doesn't rain in Eeshay. Wednesday night, there must have been a severe thunderstorm, because it was raining in Eeshay, the likes of which I've never seen. Only it wasn't raining rain. It was raining something far more electrifying. It was raining 3's. #MVP #Eeshayforthewin #EeshayChop 52 of our 59 points we're scored by some of our greatest shooters in camp history, Rabb- oh, actually MVP Yosef and Commish Yosef #seeyouMonday. The new dynamic duo. There's got to be a nickname here. YoYo? Sandski? Splash br- aw, that's taken. We'll work on it. #SurveySez Speaking of Yosef Sandler, he was the most tortured! Ooh, that came out wrong. Yosef's bunk won torture the counselor! To be honest, the most tortured counselor was Aryeh Novack. Wait, is he even a counselor? Aryeh's a counselor like Shimmy, Yosef, and I are Rabbis- kinda-sorta-ish-not. #FeartheBeards The game ending drives this week were insane. Back-to-back-to-back days, football games were won on the final play. #theextension #EeshayRecords These games were tighter than the staff's hiding spots. C'mon Ez, really?! What made you think you could squeeze into a playground tunnel made for munchkins?! #stealthmode Commish Damski's 18 point debut, Glasser's Ump Gear, Edwin Diaz walkup, Catan for dayyyy #G.Wiso, What's a Jackal?, Smiley Wylie, Eeshay Bleacher Creatures #rollcall, and alot of ball, we are rocking... #onemanwreckingcrew #EeshayHYPE
 Always on fire,
 Ez
