

Dear Campers...

What an incredible summer!! Hashem bentched us with a fantastic summer and together we enjoyed every moment of it. Let's keep the glow of Eeshay bright throughout the year. Let's remember the good times that we had. The intense leagues, the awesome trips, the great shiurim, the incredible night activities, the game room, the pool, workshops, and of course the canteen. (BTW Too expensive in my opinion) Most importantly let's remember each other. Let's remember the absolutely super staff - each and every member which is the backbone of Eeshay (even if it happens that they miss a call while reffing :-)) Let's remember each and every camper - YOU are EESHAY.

On a personal note - I enjoyed getting to know/ or reconnecting with each and every one of you. Thank You! Your are truly terrific. Wishing you a growth filled year of shteiging and simcha

Keep Glowing!

*Have a wonderful restful Shabbos
Rabbi Kramer*

From the Desk of Ez the Prez

Wow. I can't believe it's already here. I'm in a state of shock. I don't know what to think. How to react. Everything up until now is a blur. This is a very emotional moment for me. It's here- the new deep fryer. The french fries are back! Camp is complete. Hmm. Camp is...complete. I guess it's time to discuss the elephant in the room. Color War... judging. Yes, it is true. My favorite berry is blueberry. I could always go for a view of the big blue sea. I love the sight of blue robin's eggs. My favorite planet is Neptune (it's blue. Look it up). And my dream pet is a dog... (what does that have to do with blue?)... with blue fur (saved it). But I assure you, Team White is dripping with objectivity. No biases. No favorit- Okay, HenoCh Kramer was in the play, so maybe a little favorites. Totally impartial. In fact, I had more of a reason to go for red. I think aish is way cooler than mayim- wait. I'm just getting notice #woj that shockingly, the themes were not aish and mayim. So, what were they? Machshava vs. maaseh? No. Torah vs. Tefilah? Nope. Strawberries vs. Blueberries? Nu-uh. Cranberries vs... Blueberries? #Icantthinkofanyotherfoodthatsblue Milchigs vs. Fleishigs? Blue Jays vs. Cardinals? Okay, those aren't themes. Those are just sports teams. Poppers vs. Ice Cream? No. Especially not for bunk chaf. #fantasyfootballistotallypartofnightactivitiesahayoudidntgrounddefeatedafterall Oh, I'm getting word the themes were... chit-zonius vs... pnimius? Random. Who came up with these themes? That guy must be a just a little bit crazy. Or, maybe he is just past his prime. Maybe he used to be smart with color war and then as he got older, he got rusty. Yeah, maybe he's just an old man. Maybe he's just a grandpa. #thesuspendersaretostay In some seriousness ("all" is a strong word), Color War was lit. What do you expect when the Generals are super- talented camp veterans? The whole staff nailed it. The campers nailed it. It really was the perfect ending to a summer I'm going to have a hard time leaving behind. When you're sitting in class, bored, daydreaming of hitting a go-ahead double or of pushing a yam with your nose, just know... I am too. Thank you Rabbi Kramer for a magical summer. Thank you to the head staff. Yes, Levi, you too. Thank you to the staff. I don't know what we would do without you guys. Rabbi Kramer and I marvel at each one of you and your specific kochos. You make camp rock. And your partners who make camp rock are you, the campers. I feel close to you guys, which makes camp's ending so hard. I hope you guys enjoy school so the year flies by and we can just get to Eeshay 2023 already. As for now, I am going to miss each and every one of you. And remember... Ozer has a pet turtle! This is the Prez signing off, Ez

COLOR WAR 2022!!

BLUE TEAMMMMM!!!!!!
BIG DUB!! I'm starting this even before they announced the winner because obviously we're gonna win. And if somehow we don't, they probably rigged the scoring. But it's ok. After such an incredible war we can take out the most important thing of all. Win or lose, we're all winners on the inside. Pnimius. It's what's on the inside that counts. Unless you're wearing red. Then it's sorta what's on the inside that counts. Is that possible? They're Chitzonius! Does it even matter what's on the inside if you're shirt color is red? Ok seriously though, it's both. Staying true to who you are on the inside while not trying to look like Yoily the shlump. Anyway, post-war time I reflect on all the great battles we've just endured. Round Robin never fails, and all the sports and activities had me jumping more than our trip to Skyzone. We've taken some hard hits (I'm still sore. Thanks Granite von Boulderburg) and pulled through together while we channeled our INNER (Ozer's) pet turtle. We did this together. 200 POINT DIFFERENTIAL IN CAMPER SPORTS?!?!?!? You guys are incredible. Unreal. Dominant. But let's not forget the hard-working staff behind the scenes. Captain BZ, the Play. Was. Phenomenal. (Ari, Aryeh, Grani- uh, I mean, Henoch, you guys were great!!) The amount of work you put into that was mind-blowing. (Shoutout BK for the help) Not just that, but you're energy and leadership is unmatched. Those special boxing gloves need YOU to win, Knuckles. Shimmie, Shack, Isky, the teams were unbeatable. Literally. That gave us the edge. You guys killed it. Special shoutout to Shimmie for running the activities while we were preparing for the play. You stepped up huge. Yehuda, I could not have wrote the alma mater without you're help. You took care of all the other technicalities that I would'nt have thought of. From running to party city, to taking care of the paperwork, you were awesome. Those late night meetings will be forever be remembered and cherished on "A long dark winter day, watching the clock tick away". Lastly, it truly was an honor to be your general. Since I was you're age watching the Eeshay old timers as my generals, I've always wanted the chance to get there myself. So thank you guys for the opportunity. I still have never lost color war as general. Remember that for next year and hop on the bandwagon. ;)

What a war. What. A. War. A battle of the ages. A historic match to be remembered by all. A battle so legendary, so fantastic, so fierce that I shake just thinking about it. It was a true privilege to watch it unfold, even if it ended in a way no one thought it would...the Face-off between Zecharia aka Zeech Solomon and the Great Rabbi Kramer on the balance beam of Skyzone. There is only one thing on their minds. Death by foam pit. And as the battle takes an unexpected turn, leaving the bearded legend drowning in foam cubes, the crowd goes wild. A moment that will never be forgotten...Just kidding. COLOR WAR!!!!!! Wow.

Those action-packed 2 days felt like a week. I barely remembered what team I was on and what I wanted to annoy Groman about...oh right! Play-off trades! Just kidding, who could forget about annoying Yosef? Speaking of annoying Yosef Groman, man did we give him the sweats out there. We put up a good fight boys. Every win we got, every point we earned, pushed him and the blue team to their mental limits while we stayed cool as a cucumber. #coolrises. But really, you guys are the best team a general could ask for. They pulled ahead by just a tad, but it's a win in my books. Everyone put in everything they had and gave it their all and that's what counts. Huge shoutout to Cap'n Tish and Akiva Coan for writing a banger song and putting in the time and work into the whole color war. Big thanks to DJ for all your help with the play and all around hype. The boyz Yosef Snitow, Benji Rosenblum, and Yehuda Schmidt for knocking out the teams(shoutout to Avi and Mo), you guys are ballers. No general could ask for a better squad. Thanks to all the Red Team refs for showing up to your sports games. And to the blue team refs for not. #biased. Shoutout to Pinny Pinter and Meir Steinberg and the whole Red Team for your parts in the play(you guys nailed it btw), the play scoring was, believe it or not, within two points of each other. But as good as our fire staff was, staying up till the wee hours of the morning, and running around camp making sure everything gets done and everyone is where they're supposed to be, it all comes down to the campers. You guys are what made it awesome. You guys made the intensity and the hype and the rising heat and the fun. To the blue team: You did good. You got us. For now, Yosef, this was the best year of color war yet. Hands down. Thanks for putting up a good fight. I was scared we were going to sweep you like we did in swimming #men-nieweissmanisadolphin. BZ, your play was hilarious(Shoutout to Master Goldsmith and narrator Aryeh Krich)(and the pineapple). From the Shimmy's to rowdy Yehuda Schwartz to the lowkey star volleyball player Izzy to Tuvs splashing buckets like Neg behind the 3 line. Thanks for the fight and the best color war ever. (Sorry/not sorry about the grammen). To all: Guys, it's been real. No, scratch that. The whole summer, from day one till today has been officially, absolutely, completely, utterly, thoroughly, unquestionably, UNREAL. I can't believe it's over and I can't believe it's not coming back for a whole year. At some point during the winter I'm gonna have to pull out the Alma Maters and just cry. Just let it all out. Cry for leagues, for airlines and watches and schoo-excuse me, yeshivas, in Israel. Cry for pink skittles, and oreos and Ezra's wallet and yams. Cry rivers for OTB, Deal or No Deal #Ezrasdirtysocks, and pictionary. For camping with mice(shoutout to Mikey, Moshe, and Efraim) and skyzone and John Pizzi. I'll need a tissue for Eeshay Rush, and bowling, and escape rooms. For almost losing my head, Ozer's pet turtle, rafting, and Camelback. I'll bawl buckets for Rabbi Kramer and Rabbi Goldman. I'll shed a few for Ezra and Levi. But I will certainly cry the most for the Red Team. Thank you to all the campers for the Best. Flippin. Summer. Ever. You guys are the bomb and I'm already itching for next summer. Call anytime. Can't wait to see you then!

Team Red-Alma Mater T.T.T.O. : Gam Ki Elech

Low 1

Sitting in the classroom, head on my desk
Ooo Thinking about the future, getting a little stressed
Now the summers around the corner, the years about to end
I need a summer filled, with all my friends

Low 2

I wake up in the morning, the days finally here
Walking through the gym doors, my smiles from ear to ear
Ooo Groomans leagues, Ezra's night activities
The workshops, bagel munch, and Teddies

High 1

Eeeshay, all the memories we've made
You've kindled a flame, which will never fade
Ooo Even When, the weather will turn cold
I will be warmed, by this fire in my soul

High 2

Eeshay, my home away from home,
When I'm here, I never feel alone
The time will come, when we have to part
But you will always be, in my heart

Low 3 Solo: EL

Pulling up to camp, Rabbi Kramer says hi
I feel like I belong, when I see that warm smile
And before every Mincha, he shows us his care
With those sweet words of Torah, he always shares

Low 4

Now the summers almost over, we start our goodbyes
We leave those same gym doors, now with tears in our eyes
Our Torah and our Middos, they'll continue to grow
As our hidden spark, starts to GLOW

High 1

Eeeshay, all the memories we've made
You've kindled a flame, which will never fade
Ooo Even When, the weather will turn cold
I will be warmed, by this fire in my soul

High 2

Eeshay, you're my home away from home,
Ooo When I'm here, I never feel alone
The time will come, when we have to part
But you will always be, in my heart

Low 5

Ezra Wisotsky, he really is the Champ
Levi Adler and Rav Moish, the backbones of the Camp
And our own Tuvia Minchenberg, that we all love
Our head staff Mamesh, fell from above

Low 6

General Dave, Captain Tisch too
Akiva Coan, Yosef Snitow, wow what a crew
With Rosenblum, Schmidt and Deejay, there's no mystery
That they will lead us all, to victory

High 1

Eeeshay, all the memories we've made
You've kindled a flame, which will never fade
Ooo Even When, the weather will turn cold
I will be warmed, by this fire in my soul

High 2

Eeshay, you let me be who I can be
This summer I'll take, with me for history
Ooo I can't wait to be back here next year
Cuz my home away from home is right here
Thank you for all that you have done
