

Dear Campers...

Week 7 - what a blast!

At least for those who weren't greedy on Monday during Deal or No Deal :-)

This week camp was literally popping - at least for those who know how to guess that picture.

On a more serious note, let's remember that the Torah and Mitzvos were given for our benefit, which means that they only enhance our lives.

Let's remember Yoel who received a 2 1/2 million dollar check in the mail from AIG after he was so selfless during Covid.

Let's remember the power of Shteiging in Shiur - which according to the Sforno in this weeks Parsha may affect us even more so than seeing the open miracles that occurred in the Bais Hamikdash.

Looking forward to an incredible fantastic final week of Eeshay 2023
Have a wonderful restful Shabbos
Rabbi Kramer

THE GROMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WHEW I'm wiped. Another wild week. I must say it is nice to be back to 100% on the court. And no I'm not talking about the staff game (although if you didn't bet on me you're clearing not very good at fantasy basketball). I'm talking about knockout. And for those of you that don't know the rules of knockout- YOU CAN BOP THE BALL OUT OF THE HOOP. EVEN IF IT ALREADY PASSED THROUGH THE RIM. I WAS NOT OUT. I DEMAND A RE-ugh never mind. I'll save my energy for dodgeball. THE BEST water is flying everywhere (because it never rains in Eeshay) activity. Yeah Schechter I get 2 lives. No it's not cheating. Show me where in the rulebook it says that's cheating. Exactly. It doesn't. Not in Rabbi Wisotsky's rulebook at least. It's hard to find rules in the rulebook when ya kinda make them up as you go. But you can't argue with them. They were pretty fair, after all. Maybe we should just play dodgeball everyday. But with baseballs. Make it a little harder. Literally. Or hockey balls. And to get someone out you needa use your stick to hit em. Picture the scene. Staff vs campers. 100 people whacking hockey balls left and right causing complete and utter chaos. We could totally make up a sport like that. We'll call it... torture the counselor? Now that's for real torture. Like reffing volleyball. Or unfreezing a block of iced t-shirt. And then putting it on. Whatever's left of it, that is. I won't spoil anything else. You all will have to see for yourselves next week. Collectively though we all have one goal, and that is, well, to torture the counselor. And being that I am not a counselor, I'm on your team, campers. Let's rest up and prepare for another insane week, and of course, to torture our counselors. Get ready boys. Have an awesome Shabbos, Yosef
